

A DIVORCE GRANTED.

Court Separates a Butler County Minister From His Wife.

SHE WAS AN ALLEGHENY CITY GIRL

The December Grand Jury Acted on 489 Cases and Adjourned.

SOME INTERESTING COURT NEWS

A divorce was granted yesterday in the case of Mrs. Eleanor B. McFarland against A. B. C. McFarland. The defendant in the case was a minister of the gospel, and at one time, it was testified to, was the most popular preacher in Butler county. He has since been expelled from the church, it is stated, and is now residing with Judge McCandless in Butler county. The plaintiff in the case was a Miss Eleanor Berry, of North avenue, Allegheny. She was married to McFarland in 1877 when she was 17 years of age and he 30. He was then a student in a theological seminary in Allegheny. A year later they went to Fairview, Butler county, where he was given a congregation and where they lived until 1888. In her testimony Mrs. McFarland stated that he abused her until she was compelled to return to her mother in Allegheny. She states that he commenced his abuse in 1883. He swore at her, struck her, beat, kicked and choked her and threw her down. His abuse was continuous. At one time she alleges he threatened, whipped and finally dragged her for three days to compel her to sign some papers. He threatened to cut her throat, and also pointed a revolver at her. His cruelty continued until 1888, when she had to leave him. All this time, she stated, he was preaching, and was the most popular preacher in Butler county. Since then his popularity waned, and she says he was expelled from the church and is now residing in Allegheny. The divorce suit was commenced in the spring of 1889. Desertion was charged. Mrs. McFarland's testimony was corroborated by a number of witnesses. McFarland made no defense.

ADJOURNS FOR A MONTH.

The Last December Grand Jury Findings—Marshall Indicted for Voluntary Manslaughter in the Hotel Elevator Accident Case—Officers Are Held for Extortion.

The grand jury adjourned yesterday to meet the second Monday in January. While in session since Monday, December 5, it acted on 489 cases, of which 24 were on the Oyer and Terminer calendar.

In the case of Charles L. Marshall, charged with the killing of Charles Spriggs, the grand jury returned a true bill on the charge of involuntary manslaughter, but the bill charging him with murder was ignored. On October 22, Marshall carelessly pulled the elevator rope and started the car, catching young Spriggs. The boy's leg was so badly crushed that it had to be amputated and he died.

In the case of false pretense against Eugene Brown, true bills were returned on four counts. Brown is alleged to have obtained a large amount of various sums of money on bogus European bonds. True bills were also returned in the case of Squire G. F. Roddick and his constable, W. J. Backhouse, of Sewickley, charged with extortion. It is claimed the defendants collected $50 as fees from A. Kasopaki, who was charged with illegal liquor selling. They made a summary conviction and order of $1 and divided the money between them, the Squire taking $30 and the constable $20. A true bill was returned in the case of John Penn, charged with kidnapping a prisoner from Officer Geyer, of Millvale borough. Other true bills were:

John W. Anderson, Edward Gould, embezzlement; John Campbell, M. C. Smith, Maurice Stein, Frank Wolf, illegal liquor selling; Louis Doerstein, Clara Lantz, Henry Lantz, Mary Mamel, perjury; Thomas Darby, Mike Jordan, Danis H. Brown, Andrew Strak, larceny; J. G. Ebbert, false pretense; John Gavin, Henry Lantz, assault and battery; Henry Helpham, William Connelly, aggravated assault and battery; Peter Conway, serious crime.

The ignored bills were, Frank Wolf, illegal liquor selling; Jacob Friedman, removing goods to defraud creditors; George Frick, assault and battery.

For a Husband's Death. Mrs. Marcella Ulecky yesterday entered suit against the Pittsburgh, Cincinnati, Chicago and St. Louis Railway Company for $10,000 damages for the death of her husband, Anthony Ulecky. She states that on July 11, 1892, he took the body of an infant to McDonald station. An employe ordered him off the train. He stepped on the track, a train struck him and he was fatally injured.

W. H. Denniston Wins. A verdict of $7,022.87 for the plaintiff was given in the case of William H. Denniston against the Home Life and Investment Company of Pennsylvania. The suit was brought to recover a commission paid by Denniston on the sale of a charter by him to the company. The amount was obtained from Denniston by a suit, and he then sued the company.

The Hum of the Courts. Six persons on trial for assault and battery in the Criminal Court were acquitted yesterday. HARRY BROWN was sent to the Huntingdon Reformatory for stealing $200 from R. P. Blaisley, of State township. JOHN FOX, of West Elizabeth, was fined $300 and sent three months to the workhouse for illegal liquor selling. The suit of the Philadelphia Gas Company against Millvale borough, to recover a gas bill for street lighting, is on trial before Judge McClung. JUDGE BURNSTROM, of the United States Court, discharged the receiver of the Home worth Steel Company. The liabilities in 1901 were $400,000, but creditors took stock and recognized the company. ADULT SCHWEIZER was given a second trial on the charge of felonious assault and battery. He was tried for shooting a man named Smith at West station. It was shown by Dr. Wylie that the man is insane.

A DYSPEPTIC ARGUMENT Is a growl, and that growl marks the limit of argument with him. The best way to get him to try a medicine would be to advise against it—but notice how different his tone after using Burdock Blood Bitters. "I have suffered with dyspepsia for the last two years. Not long ago I commenced taking Dr. R. B. R. I am now on the second bottle and I feel like a new man. G. KNOX, 12 Sherwood av., Binghamton, N. Y."

REPEATED TESTS WITH URIC ACID SCOPES prove the fact that Burdock Blood Bitters will cure dyspepsia. The reason is plain, it tones the stomach to natural action and keeps the same ways of the system free from clogging impurities. "I have been troubled with dyspepsia and heart disease for some time and found no relief until I tried Burdock Blood Bitters. Now I am well after taking two bottles. Mrs. A. H.
